

HAMPTON CITY SCHOOLS PRESENTS:
OUR OCTOBER EDGENUITY STUDENT OF THE MONTH:
MEET LEEA BASS...

(Leea is shown with Dr. Kellie Robinson- eLearning Teacher at AALC)

Leea is an 11th grader who has completed a significant number of courses this school year, taken advantage of opportunities to get extra help, and acted as a role model for other students.

Leea is looking forward to college and wants to become a veterinarian. She would love to start an organization similar to Doctors Without Borders but for exotic animals. She is also interested in surfing, baseball, and beach volleyball.

HAMPTON CITY SCHOOLS PRESENTS:
OUR OCTOBER EDGENUITY STUDENT OF THE MONTH:
MEET TRAMMELL GOODMAN...

(Trammell is shown with his Graduation Facilitator, Ms. Gretchen Graham)

Trammell is a Senior who has quite a few courses on Edgenuity but has worked diligently. He is quiet and polite and is on task at all times. He is determined that he will finish all of his courses by the end of the first semester.

Trammell plans on going into the military after graduation and he desires to get into a field that involves technology. He works and enjoys spending time at home watching movies and occasionally playing video games.

Trammell has gone through some rough periods, but is determined to turn all of that around. When speaking to one of his core teachers, the words used to describe him were...hard worker, respectful, and does his best.

HAMPTON CITY SCHOOLS PRESENTS:

OUR OCTOBER EDGENUITY STUDENT OF THE MONTH:
MEET SHANICE RICHARDSON...

(Shanice was nominated by Mr. Charles Spratley, her HHS Graduation Facilitator)

Shanice is a 12th grader who has already finished one class in Edgenuity and is halfway through her second class.

She plans to attend college to become a nurse. She likes to study and complete school work in her spare time and also likes to cook.

HAMPTON CITY SCHOOLS PRESENTS:

OUR OCTOBER EDGENUITY STUDENT OF THE MONTH:
MEET DESTINY FREEMAN...

(Destiny was nominated by her Graduation Facilitator, Ms. Bonita Solomon)

Destiny has been working towards graduating early, and has been committing to the time it takes to be successful. She is also instrumental in encouraging other students to keep working.

She plans to join the Army upon completion of her high school academic journey.

In addition to being a mother and maintaining an independent status, she is pushing to finish in December.

